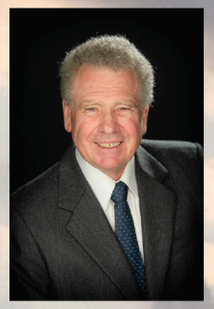
Jesus is King.

The first three centuries of Christianity was nothing like today's Christian culture. They were a functioning Kingdom with a King and a borderless Domain.

They were:

- Citizens, not Members
- A Nation, not a Church
- A Kingdom, not a Theology
- A Government, not a Religion
- Followers, not Lawyers
- Servants, not Theologians

Nothing in our present Christian culture matches the early followers of Jesus. Our imitation religion we practice today is just a shadow of the power and majesty that the Christians of the first three centuries enjoyed.



Terry Stueck is the founder of High Plains Bible Mission. His ministry includes church planting, church rescue, inner-city missions, and prison ministry. He is the author of Forgive Instantly & Live Free, The Seeker's Guide to the Kingdom of God, and Being God: Stealing God's Power, Glory and Kingdom.
